LAND SALE.

Thomas Young, last Saturday, sold his farm of 240 acres, near Higginaville, at $43 an acre; amounting to $10,320. The purchaser is August Hoeler, a brother o Harman and Charles Hoefer, who has recently come to our county to locate him-self. For these times, it is a considerable

A DANGEROUS BLOW.

In some childish game or romp, abo succet last Thursday evening, little Mark Smith, son of our townsman, C. O. Smith was struck in the head with a croque mailet or stake, in the hands of Eddie Kerdolff, and badly burt. Dr. Chambers was called in and dressed the wound and it is now thought no serious result will tollow.

NOTEWORTHY.

Among all the distinguished individua the thronged our stately village, last who thronged our stately village, last Saturday, governors, senators, congressmen and legi-lators, few were more noticeable than J. H. Rector, a handsome and educated colored politician of St. Louis.

Darker-hued than a Hindoo, he had the appearance and manners of a gentleman was here to meet the most intelligen and influential of Lafayette's dusky citizens, with a view to organizing for effective service during the campaign. What they did, or what they intend, we cannot say; but, as Rector came, highly endorsed and commended, to the Caussian office, as a starting-point, we feel satisfied no harm will result from the movement.

BUTLERIZATION.

Lesueur's grocery was broken into last amount of money and, perhaps, some other articles. A rescally young nigger mamed Jin Urawford was picked-up on suspicion. He had, in his pocket, a knife with a piece broken out of the blade; the missing piece was found just where the missing piece was found just where the aissing piece was found just where the assement-door of the store had been cut had been cut house. And this, with other irrefutable tems of circumstantial evidence, fixed the guilt of imitating the favorite son and congressman of Massachusetts, conclusions, and the congressman of the congressman of Massachusetts, conclusions, and the congressman of the co items of circumstantial evidence, fixed the guilt of imitating the favorite son and sively upon Mr. Crawford.
